

HRAWI conducts seminar on Tax Matters & updates in the Union Budget 2018-19 for Hoteliers & Restaurateurs

The Hotel and Restaurant Association of Western India (HRAWI) organized a seminar on Tax Matters and updates in the Union Budget 2018-19 for hospitality sector at the Hotel Ambassador in Mumbai, recently. The seminar was conducted by Mr. Anil Harish, a renowned expert on taxation and policies. The key speaker presented several aspects and implications of the proposed changes in the Budget, which will directly and indirectly affect the industry.

Hospitality industry has not been officially granted the status of an industry and this puts hoteliers and restaurateurs at a disadvantage. However within the scope of the legal frameworks, with his expertise Mr. Anil Harish decoded the budget and addressed key issues faced by hoteliers and restaurateurs. The seminar witnessed attendance of hoteliers and restaurateurs from across the regions.
