

Radisson Hotel Group to open 100th hotel in India this year

Radisson Hotel Group, one of the world's largest hotel groups owned by Jin Jiang Group, will reach its 100-hotel mark in India this year. The hotel group has reiterated its commitment to South Asia at the Hotel Investment Conference South Asia (HICSA) 2019 which is currently underway in Mumbai.

The company is already one of the largest international hotel groups in India, with 143 properties and over 16,800 rooms currently operating or under development nationwide. As the group enters the second year of Destination 2022, its five-year strategic roadmap, extensive expansion is underway across this vibrant region.

Radisson Hotel Group signed 15 hotels in India in 2018 and it has already signed four more properties in 2019: Park Plaza Amritsar, Radisson Greater Noida, Radisson Gurugram Sohna Road City Center, and Park Inn by Radisson Kashipur. Seven new hotels were opened in India in 2018, and the group is on track to reach the landmark of opening its 100th hotel in India this year. New hotels set to open within the next 12 months include India's first Radisson RED hotel, located in Mohali, which will usher in an exciting new era of contemporary, creative hospitality to India.

The rapid expansion of the group's South Asian portfolio is expected to create more than 4,000 new job opportunities over the next three years, and Radisson Hotel Group will be actively seeking to hire and nurture the best talent the region has to offer, the company said in a statement.
