

Madhya Pradesh takes home maximum accolades at the National Tourism Awards

Besides bagging the Hall of Fame Award for the Best State/UT for Comprehensive Development of Tourism category, Madhya Pradesh Tourism bagged a number of awards and accolades at the National Tourism Awards 2015-16 organised by Ministry of Tourism, Government of India.

Madhya Pradesh won awards in categories like Most Innovative & Unique Tourism Product for Hanuwantiya and Jal Mahotsav, Best Film Promotion Friendly State/UT, Best State for Adventure Tourism, Excellence in Publishing for their Coffee Table Book on 'The Heart of Incredible India.' Best Heritage City, Chanderi, Madhya Pradesh, Best Tourist Friendly Railway Station for Ujjain, Best Civic Management of a Tourism Destination for Khargone.

Chhatrapati Shivaji International Airport, Mumbai was adjudged the Best Airport in the Class X cities, followed by Srinagar Airport, J&K and Swami Vivekananda Airport Raipur, in the other cities category.