

Accor announces signing of two Raffles Hotels in Rajasthan at Jaipur and Udaipur

Accor has signed two hotel properties in Udaipur and Jaipur in Rajasthan. Both the hotels will carry the iconic Raffles branding. The announcement was made in the presence of Sebastien Bazin, Chairman and CEO of Accor and Ratankant Sharma, the Owner of the proposed hotel projects in Mumbai today. The iconic Raffles brand is synonymous with luxury, glamour and extraordinary adventure and this announcement signals a new direction for Accor in India, with a stronger focus on luxury and premium brands. Both hotels will deliver a palatial experience in an extraordinary setting along with the famously discreet and personalised Raffles service.

The Raffles Udaipur will be set on a 21-acre private island in the midst of Udai Sagar Lake, one of the five prominent lakes of Udaipur. The 101 lake-facing rooms are surrounded by spectacular hill scenery, with views of the 400-year-old temple in the background. The suites additionally boast private pools. The hotel is expected to open by mid-2020.
