

The Leela Gandhinagar presents Thai Food Festival

The Leela Gandhinagar, the luxurious hospitality destination in the twin cities of Ahmedabad and Gandhinagar, is hosting a Thai Food Festival, inviting guests to indulge in the authentic flavors of Thailand.

Curated by the renowned chef, Chef Wimon, the Thai Food Festival menu showcases the rich and diverse Thai flavors, reflecting Chef Wimon's culinary expertise gained from working in various countries, including India and Thailand.

Running from November 22 to December 3, the festival's menu features a delightful array of dishes, including traditional spicy Thai soup, Thai fried tofu with peanut sauce, green papaya salad, and a selection of main course options such as stir-fried bamboo shoots, vegetables, and spicy mushrooms, catering to diverse preferences.

Guests at The Leela Gandhinagar during this period can enjoy live counters offering flat rice noodles tossed with sweet savory sauce, Thai green curry, Thai red curry, and assorted satay. The dessert spread includes rice dumplings with coconut, red rubies in coconut cream, steamed pumpkin cake, and a special dessert crafted by Chef Wimon herself. This Thai Food Festival promises an immersive culinary experience for those looking to savor the authentic tastes of Thailand.
