

IHCL looks to strengthen leadership position in spiritual tourism, to add more hotels

Indian Hotels Company Ltd, a Tata Group hospitality firm, is set to reinforce its leadership in spiritual tourism by developing properties in renowned locations across India. With spirituality anticipated to play a more significant role globally, the company, currently having 66 hotels either operational or under development in spiritual destinations, aims to continue expanding its portfolio. The recent addition is in Ayodhya, a noted hotspot. Puneet Chhatwal, Managing Director & CEO of the company, emphasized the growing importance of spiritual destinations worldwide and highlighted the company's leading position in this sector.
