

IHCL signs fifth Ginger hotel in Thane

Indian Hotels Company (IHCL) has announced the signing of its fifth Ginger-branded hotel in the Mumbai Metropolitan Region, located in Thane, Maharashtra. This new greenfield project exemplifies Ginger's lean luxe design philosophy, offering guests a perfect blend of work and leisure in vibrant, contemporary spaces.

Suma Venkatesh, Executive Vice President of Real Estate & Development at IHCL, stated, "The signing of our fifth Ginger hotel in the Mumbai Metropolitan Region (MMR) in Thane aligns with IHCL's strategic vision of expanding its presence in key urban centres in India. Thane, with its rapid development, has emerged as a residential and commercial hub in Maharashtra. We are delighted to collaborate with Jagdale Infrastructure Private Limited for this new hotel."

The 200-key Ginger Thane will be situated in the heart of the business district, close to retail centres. The hotel will feature Qmin, the signature all-day diner offering a delightful array of global and local favorites, along with a bar. Additionally, it will provide modern amenities such as a state-of-the-art fitness centre, a banquet hall spanning over 2,000 sq. ft., and well-equipped meeting rooms.

Rahul Jagdale and Rohit Jagdale, Directors of Jagdale Infrastructure Private Limited, expressed, "We are delighted to join forces with IHCL for this new project. We look forward to bringing the vibrant brand of Ginger to a new address in Thane."

Thane in MMR is home to numerous IT parks, businesses, and shopping centres, making it a significant destination for both business and leisure travellers.

With the addition of this hotel, IHCL will have 35 hotels in Maharashtra, including 12 under development.

The Jagdale Group, led by Rahul Jagdale and Rohit Jagdale, has been in the real estate business since 1985, developing over 1.5 million sq. ft. of residential and commercial spaces in MMR.
