

FHRAI announces 54th Convention in Goa

After a six-year hiatus, FHRAI has declared the forthcoming 54th Annual Convention, scheduled to take place in Goa from October 16 to 18, 2024. Preceding this, the Federation successfully hosted the Travel For Life Tourism Sustainability Summit 2024 in the capital. The summit, inaugurated by Amitabh Kant, G-20 Sherpa, drew a robust participation from key professionals in the hospitality sector, spanning hotels, government bodies, institutes, and travel associations, among others.

Highlighting FHRAI's commitment to sustainable tourism, Pradeep Shetty, President of FHRAI, articulated, "FHRAI is dedicated and focused on making sustainable tourism a pivotal agenda for the advancement of the tourism and hospitality sector in the country. The Federation aims to embrace it as a mission, ushering in a paradigm shift in India's tourism and hospitality sector by intensifying efforts towards sustainable practices, encompassing climate action, energy and appliances efficiency, plastic reduction, biodiversity, and efficient consumption."
