

Hyatt Centric Juhu celebrates its second anniversary with a unique food pop-up

Hyatt Centric Juhu announces a culinary event to celebrate its second anniversary. From August 24th to 26th, Mumbai will host the world's first Indo-Japanese fusion restaurant, Inja, in an exclusive collaboration with Sesame, Hyatt Centric Juhu's acclaimed Asian cuisine restaurant. This Indo-Japanese food pop-up extravaganza promises an unparalleled dining experience, blending the rich flavours of Indian and Japanese cuisines.

“At Hyatt Centric Juhu, we're all about pushing boundaries and delivering unforgettable experiences for our guests. In celebration of our second anniversary, collaborating with the visionary team at Inja for this pop-up is the perfect embodiment of that spirit. We're thrilled to offer our guests a chance to experience the unexpected—a fusion food adventure that is as bold and innovative as Mumbai itself!” said Shilpi Khanna, General Manager.

Inja's visionary Chef, Adwait Anantwar, leads the culinary charge, collaborating with Sesame's culinary experts to curate a special seven-course menu. Through extensive research and experimentation, Chef Anantwar masterfully balances the delicate flavours of Japan with the complex spice profiles of India. The result? A truly unique and unforgettable dining experience that will leave you wanting more. Discover a fusion of flavours with dishes like Shisho Leaf “Tuna & Pomelo Chaat”, indulge in a creamy Lobster Rasam “Chawanmushi”, or try the Palak paneer “Sarada” a perfect blend of Japanese and Indian culinary artistry.

“I am thrilled to bring Inja's unique Indian-Japanese cuisine to Mumbai for the first time in collaboration with Hyatt Centric Juhu. This pop-up is an exciting opportunity to share our innovative flavours with Mumbaikars. I can't wait for everyone to experience this special fusion,” said Chef Adwait Anantwar.

This exclusive pop-up promises to be an unforgettable culinary journey. Mark your calendars and prepare to be amazed by the innovative fusion creations born from this exciting collaboration. Be sure to experience this exceptional event as Hyatt Centric Juhu celebrates its milestone with a gastronomic journey that promises to be truly one-of-a-kind
