

Enrise by Sayaji now open in Lonavala

Enrise by Sayaji Lonavala recently celebrated its grand opening, marking a significant milestone in hospitality.

Nestled amidst the serene landscapes of Lonavala, Enrise by Sayaji Lonavala redefines traditional hospitality by seamlessly blending historical charm with contemporary elegance. The property, which has transformed a vintage bungalow into a symbol of innovation and sophistication, offers 32 rooms inspired by European designs, a spacious banquet hall, two lush lawns, and a multi-cuisine restaurant and bar. These amenities cater to the refined tastes of modern travellers seeking a unique experience.

Enrise by Sayaji Lonavala also boasts boutique MICE (Meetings, Incentives, Conferences, and Exhibitions) facilities, positioning itself as the premier destination for a variety of events. With a focus on convenience and efficiency, the property ensures seamless event planning and execution.

At its core, Enrise by Sayaji Lonavala is dedicated to innovation in architecture and design. The hotel's innovative lifestyle concept, characterized by premium European design and personalized service synonymous with 4-star properties, sets a new benchmark for luxury and comfort in Lonavala's hospitality scene.

Ajay Kanojia, the general manager, expressed his excitement at the launch, stating, "Enrise by Sayaji Lonavala represents a fusion of heritage, innovation, and hospitality excellence. We are delighted to introduce a new era in lifestyle accommodation and event hosting, promising unforgettable experiences in Lonavala."

Sanjay Totalni, one of the Partners at Enrise by Sayaji Lonavla, shared his vision of architectural brilliance and unmatched hospitality embodied by the property. Deepak Lakra, the operations manager, emphasized the commitment to delivering exceptional service and creating lasting memories for guests.
