

HRAWI appoints Trupti Pawar as new Secretary General

The Hotel And Restaurant Association (Western India) – HRAWI has appointed Trupti Pawar as its new Secretary General. With a career spanning over 22 years in international trade and business development, Pawar brings a wealth of experience and expertise to HRAWI. As the Secretary General of HRAWI, Pawar's role will include liaising and facilitating the various processes and functions of the office for efficient management of the Association and its affairs. Prior to joining HRAWI, she served as the Director at the Indo-American Chamber of Commerce (IACC). Her extensive background includes inbound and outbound delegations, conference management, networking and corporate communication. "I am honoured to join HRAWI as the Secretary General and look forward to working with the team to further enhance the hospitality industry in Western India. Apart from my core...