

Exploring legal remedies, says FHRAI

Hospitality sector body Federation of Hotel and Restaurant Associations of India (FHRAI) on Tuesday said it is exploring legal remedies against the Supreme Court order banning sale of liquor near national and state highways as 100,000 establishments have been hit. Stating that over one million jobs are at stake, FHRAI said the ban would also result in loss of ₹2 lakh crore to the exchequer. PTK