

Taj InnerCircle brings Sao Paulo cocktail experience to Taj Mahal Palace, Mumbai

Taj InnerCircle is set to bring São Paulo's cocktail culture to Mumbai with an exclusive Loya Qissa evening at Loya, The Taj Mahal Palace, Mumbai, on 12 September 2026. Exclusively for Taj InnerCircle Platinum and Gold members, the evening will feature a collaboration with Eximia, São Paulo, bringing contemporary Brazilian cocktails together with Loya's Indian culinary identity.

Award-winning bartender Marcio Silva of Eximia will lead the cocktail experience through interactive sessions and curated tastings. Silva is ranked No. 29 on The Bar World 100 2026, while Eximia is ranked No. 61 on The World's 50 Best Bars 2025. The evening will feature cocktails from Eximia alongside Loya's signature creations, zero-proof beverages, spirits and wines.

The event will also mark the launch of the Taj InnerCircle Series, a programme designed to offer members curated experiences across art, performance, books, jewellery and other cultural and lifestyle fields. The Loya Qissa menu will pair the cocktail programme with Indian tapas, charred crudites, live tandoor selections inspired by North India and Saanjha platters. Guests can also participate in an omakase cocktail tasting and interactive Shakedown session with Marcio Silva, offering insights into the techniques and craft behind the cocktails.

READ MORE

