

The Fern launches The Fern Hotels & Resorts in Hatgad-Saputara

The Fern Hotels & Resorts, India's leading environmentally sensitive hotel chain, is pleased to announce the launch of its latest resort in Maharashtra – The Fern Heaven on The Hills, Hatgad-Saputara. The company now has a total of 39 properties in Maharashtra, operational and opening shortly.

Mr. Suhail Kannampilly, Managing Director, The Fern Hotels & Resorts, expressed his pleasure at the group's continued growth and promise to delivering unparalleled hospitality. Speaking on the occasion, he commented, "We are delighted to extend our presence in this culturally rich state, providing unique hospitality experiences that honour both the allure of Maharashtra and our dedication to sustainability. We look forward to welcoming visitors to Hatgad-Saputara and providing the exceptional service that The Fern Group is known for."

Nestled in the serene hills of Hatgad-Saputara, The Fern Heaven on The Hills offers a luxurious escape that seamlessly blends comfort with natural beauty. The resort features 68 elegantly appointed rooms and suites, each thoughtfully designed to provide a unique experience. Guests can enjoy stunning valley vistas or charming garden views, with select accommodations featuring private sitting gazebos for a tranquil retreat. Additionally, Jacuzzi-equipped suites offer the perfect setting to unwind while soaking in breathtaking panoramic landscapes.

The resort offers an exceptional dining experience with Pawri, an all-day multi-cuisine restaurant serving delectable buffets and à la carte options for breakfast, lunch and dinner. For a more relaxed setting, Kahatra's Deck overlooking the infinity pool provides the perfect ambiance to enjoy stunning valley views while indulging in a selection of snacks, cocktails, and mocktails.

For events and gatherings, the resort features Jamabandi Darbar, a versatile indoor venue spanning 1,828 sq ft, ideal for meetings, conferences and social functions. For grand outdoor celebrations, Purna Lawn, covering 12,705 square feet and Ambika Lawn, extending across 13,202 square feet, provide stunning open-air settings perfect for weddings, receptions and large gatherings. Guests can indulge in relaxation at the spa, maintain their fitness routines in the gym, or enjoy various indoor activities, including a state-of-the-art indoor theatre.

The Fern Heaven on The Hills offers the perfect blend of luxury and adventure, with easy access to the region's stunning natural and cultural attractions. Guests can explore Hatgad Fort, Saputara Lake, Gira Falls and Girmal Waterfalls or visit the Saputara Tribal Museum, Purna Sanctuary, Vansda National Park and serene temples and gardens. For adventure enthusiasts, activities such as boating, kayaking, paragliding, hiking, downhill cycling, ziplining, horse riding, nature walks and village tours offer endless excitement. Whether seeking a peaceful escape or an action-packed getaway, the resort provides unparalleled comfort amid the breathtaking landscapes of the Western Ghats.
