

IHCL signs Gateway resort property in south Goa near Colva beach

Hospitality major strengthens Goa portfolio with Gateway-branded resort near Colva Beach

Indian Hotels Company Limited (IHCL) has announced the signing of a new Gateway Resort South Goa near the popular Colva Beach, further expanding its presence in one of India's leading leisure destinations. The upcoming resort will be launched under IHCL's Gateway brand and is aimed at catering to the growing demand for leisure and experiential travel in Goa.

Located in South Goa, the resort will offer guests easy access to Colva Beach while blending contemporary hospitality with the region's relaxed coastal charm. The signing aligns with IHCL's strategy of strengthening its footprint across key tourism destinations and expanding its Gateway portfolio in high-growth leisure markets.

Commenting on the development, Suma Venkatesh said Goa continues to remain a significant market for the company, driven by strong domestic and international travel demand. With this addition, IHCL further reinforces its leadership position in Goa's hospitality sector while enhancing its presence across the state's leisure travel landscape.
