

HRAWI conducts food safety training in Navi Mumbai

The Hotel and Restaurant Association of Western India (HRAWI) recently hosted an advanced food safety and management training program in collaboration with FSSAI. The event, held on November 11 at DY Patil Deemed to Be University's School of Hospitality & Tourism Studies in Navi Mumbai, focused on improving food safety practices within the hospitality industry.

A total of 39 students participated in the Food Safety Supervisor Training in Advanced Catering (FoSTaC), which addressed essential topics such as food handling, hygiene, sanitation, and waste management. The comprehensive session equipped participants with the practical skills needed to implement effective food safety protocols in their future careers, reinforcing the industry's commitment to maintaining high standards.

The program was inaugurated by several esteemed dignitaries, including Dr. Pasupathy V, Trainer; Aarti Pandirkar, Vice Principal; and Padmaja Binakar, Assistant Professor of Catering Science, from DY Patil Deemed to Be University. Manasi Parab, Admin Assistant, Training & Seminar from HRAWI, also attended the event.

HRAWI's ongoing commitment to enhancing food safety standards has been noteworthy, with the association successfully training and certifying 3,208 hospitality professionals and students through its FoSTaC and Management Training Programs to date.
