

IHCL wins Best Audit Committee Award 2024–25

Indian Hotels Company (IHCL) has been honoured with the Best Audit Committee Award 2024–25 at the Asia Business Responsibility Summit. The award was conferred by the Asian Centre for Corporate Governance & Sustainability, recognising IHCL's strong governance practices.

The recognition highlights IHCL's sustained emphasis on robust financial oversight, a strengthened risk management framework, enhanced transparency, and the protection of shareholder and stakeholder interests. The award was adjudicated by an eminent jury chaired by Sanjiv Mehta, Chairman of the Summit and Awards Committee, and presented by Paul Polman, former Global CEO of Unilever and Founder of IMAGINE, UK.
