

Royal Orchid Hotels launches new property ‘Regenta Science Centre’ in Bhuj

Royal Orchid Hotels (ROHL) has announced the opening of Regenta Science Centre, Bhuj, further strengthening its presence in western India. The 4-star property marks ROHL’s 15th hotel in Gujarat, reinforcing the brand’s strategic expansion across the state. Earlier this year, ROHL launched The World, Surat, one of Gujarat’s largest all-suite hotels.

Prime Location in the Heart of Bhuj

Regenta Science Centre, Bhuj is located in the historic walled city, offering seamless access to major attractions and the local commercial hub. The hotel is just 5 km from Bhuj Airport, 2 km from Bhuj Railway Station, and 2 km from the local bus stand, making it convenient for both business and leisure travellers.

Guests can explore iconic sites such as Smritivan Earthquake Memorial & Museum, Prag Mahal, Aina Mahal, Bhujia Fort (Bhujio Dungar), Shree Swaminarayan Temple, and the Vande Mataram Memorial. The nearby Regional Science Centre features six immersive galleries, covering Space Science, Marine Navigation, Energy Science, Nanotechnology, Bonsai, and the Fields Medal, providing an inspiring educational experience for visitors. Additionally, the city’s upcoming renewable energy power plant is set to become a major attraction.

Comfort and Recreation

The hotel offers 59 elegantly designed rooms equipped with modern amenities. Dining options include Pinxx, a 72-cover all-day multi-cuisine restaurant, and Fusionzz, a 54-cover rooftop specialty restaurant with panoramic views of Bhuj. Guests can also enjoy a swimming pool, spa, fully equipped gymnasium, and an indoor games zone, catering to travellers of all ages.

Meetings and Events

For business and social gatherings, the hotel features the Orchid Banquet Hall (3,000 sq. ft.), accommodating 250 guests theatre-style, 120 in cluster setup, and 60 in U-shape configuration. A Forum Board Room is ideal for smaller meetings, complemented by an outdoor area perfect for intimate gatherings and pre-function events.

A Strategic Expansion for Gujarat

Speaking on the launch, Arjun Baljee, President, ROHL, said:

"This opening aligns with our vision to establish a presence in key commercial centres across India. Gujarat has emerged as an industrial powerhouse, driving both domestic and international tourism. With 15 properties, Royal Orchid Hotels now has a footprint in all major cities of Gujarat, supporting the state's ambitious growth plans while offering world-class hospitality and unique experiences for travellers."
