

Lemon Tree Hotels hits a hattrick in Gir

Lemon Tree Hotels announced its latest signing, Lemon Tree Hotel, Sasan Gir, Gujarat, which shall be managed by Carnation Hotels Private Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Lemon Tree Hotels Limited.

Gujarat is home to the renowned Gir National Park, which is best known as the last natural habitat of the critically endangered Asiatic lion. The park features a diverse ecosystem, encompassing dense forests, grasslands, and water bodies, creating an ideal environment for a variety of wildlife. Visitors can also encounter leopards, antelopes, deer, and numerous bird species. With its stunning landscapes and rich biodiversity, Gir National Park attracts nature lovers and wildlife enthusiasts from around the world.

Expected to open in FY 2026, Lemon Tree Hotel, Sasan Gir, Gujarat, will feature 74 well-appointed rooms, a restaurant, a meeting room, a banquet hall, a swimming pool, a spa, and a fitness centre. Keshod Airport is approximately 60 km from the property while the Diu Airport is at a distance of 100 km, and Hirasar Rajkot International Airport is 180 km away. The nearest railway stations, Junagadh and Veraval, are around 50 km and 45 km away, respectively.

Vilas Pawar, CEO of Managed and Franchise Business, Lemon Tree Hotels, said on the occasion, “We are excited to share the expansion of our portfolio in Gujarat, where we currently have seven existing properties. This addition will complement our ten upcoming properties in the state.”
