

IHCL signs a Ginger hotel in Diu

Indian Hotels Company (IHCL), India's largest hospitality group, has announced the signing of a new Ginger hotel in Diu, part of the Union Territory of Daman and Diu.

Expanding Into a Promising Destination

Commenting on the development, Suma Venkatesh, Executive Vice President – Real Estate & Development, IHCL, said,

“Entering the Diu hospitality market is an exciting opportunity to introduce the Ginger experience in a location with immense untapped potential. With its scenic beaches and rich history, Diu is poised to grow as a tourist destination. We are thrilled to partner with Praveg Limited for this project.”

A Blend of Comfort and Coastal Charm

Set against the backdrop of Jallandhar Beach, the 45-key Ginger hotel will span three acres, offering rooms with panoramic coastal views. The property will include a range of amenities such as a fully-equipped gym, a conference hall, and a swimming pool, designed to enhance guest experiences.

Vishnukumar Patel, Chairman of Praveg Limited, shared his enthusiasm for the partnership:

“This collaboration with IHCL brings world-class hospitality to Praveg's existing property in Diu. We believe this partnership will create exceptional value for both Praveg and IHCL while elevating Diu's status as a travel destination.”

Diu: A Hidden Coastal Gem

Situated off Gujarat's Kathiawad coast, Diu is part of a union territory that includes Dadra & Nagar Haveli and Daman. Known for its unspoiled beaches, historic forts, and natural beauty, Diu has long been a hidden gem for travelers. With IHCL's entry, the region is set to see enhanced visibility and infrastructure, further solidifying its appeal as a leisure destination.

This signing marks another step in IHCL's commitment to expanding its footprint across India while unlocking the tourism potential of emerging destinations.
