

SulaFest Returns After Five Years with Music, Wine, and Celebration

After a hiatus of five years, SulaFest is set to make its much-anticipated return on February 1 and 2, 2025, at Sula Vineyards in Nashik. The festival, known for its blend of music, wine, and cultural experiences, promises an immersive weekend for attendees.

This year's lineup includes prominent Indian artists like DIVINE, Ritviz x Karan Kanchan, OAFF x Savera, and When Chai Met Toast. Other acts include Dualist Inquiry, Madboy/Mink, Ankur & The Ghalat Family, Parvaaz, and more, ensuring a diverse range of genres at Sula's open-air amphitheater, surrounded by lush vineyards.

New Experiences for 2025

The 14th edition of the festival introduces exclusive offerings for wine enthusiasts, including VIP tastings of Sula's premium wines paired with artisanal cheeses and chocolates. Interactive wine sessions, grape stomping, and the launch of The Source Moscato are also on the agenda, along with creative wine-based cocktails.

Culinary Highlights

The festival will feature an extensive food lineup, with options ranging from Mediterranean dishes to gourmet street food and desserts. Notable names include Dairy Don, The Bombay Food Truck, Domino's, Cafe Arabia, and SaladO, among others. Attendees can expect a wide variety of cuisines to complement the wines and cocktails.

SulaFest Bazaar

Adding to the festivities, the SulaFest Bazaar will offer face art, tarot readings, sustainable décor, and slow fashion, along with a range of wine accessories and unique merchandise.

Partnerships and Sustainability

Citroën India is the title sponsor for this year's event, marking the launch of its "Citroën Customer Drives" and "Citroën Owners Group." Other sponsors include Ugao, Leverage Edu, and Paul and Mike, among others.

"SulaFest is not just a celebration of music and wine but also of community and sustainability," said Rajeev Samant, Founder and CEO of Sula Vineyards.
