

Beacon of joy: The Fern Hotels on an expansion spree

The Fern Hotels & Resorts Expands Its Beacon Hotels Portfolio with Three New Properties

The Fern Hotels & Resorts is strengthening its presence across India with the addition of three new properties under its Beacon Hotels brand. This latest expansion brings new openings in New Delhi, Patna, and Pune, further enhancing the brand's reach and commitment to providing practical, comfortable, and sustainable stays.

A Vision for Growth: Insights from Suhail Kannampilly

Suhail Kannampilly, Managing Director of The Fern Hotels & Resorts, expressed his enthusiasm for the brand's growth:

“We are thrilled to introduce these new Beacon Hotels in some of India's most dynamic cities. Our expansion reflects our ongoing dedication to delivering quality hospitality with sustainability at its core. With each new property, we aim to provide great service, a welcoming atmosphere, and a memorable experience for every guest.”

New Additions to the Beacon Hotels Portfolio

Nanak Niwas Beacon, Paharganj, New Delhi

Nestled in the bustling Paharganj area, Nanak Niwas Beacon offers a fresh and inviting stay in the heart of the capital. The hotel features:

- ✓ 45 well-furnished rooms with modern amenities
- ✓ An all-day multi-cuisine restaurant
- ✓ A banquet hall, ideal for business meetings and small events

With its prime location and comfortable offerings, the hotel caters to both business and leisure travelers.

The Beacon Hotel, Patna

Adding 60 rooms to Patna's growing hospitality landscape, The Beacon Hotel offers:

- ✓ A spacious all-day dining restaurant
- ✓ Banquet facilities for corporate meetings and social gatherings

This new addition enhances accommodation options in the city, providing a blend of comfort and convenience.

The Beacon Hotel, Pune

Situated in Mohammadwadi, Pune, this new property brings a modern touch to the area with:

- ✓ Stylish, well-appointed rooms
- ✓ An in-house restaurant
- ✓ Banquet spaces perfect for small events and gatherings

As Beacon Hotels continues to expand, these new properties reinforce the brand's commitment to affordable luxury, warm hospitality, and sustainable living.
