

The Postcard Hotel opens a riverside retreat on Goa's Mandovi River

The Postcard Hotel has announced the opening of The Postcard on the Mandovi River, a serene new retreat in North Goa that reimagines the idea of a holiday. Set along the tranquil banks of the Mandovi River, the property invites travellers to slow down, immerse themselves in the landscape, and experience Goa through a quieter, more intentional lens.

Rooted in understated luxury and intuitive hospitality, every stay unfolds at an unhurried pace. Panoramic river views, thoughtful design, and a deep connection with nature create a peaceful escape that feels both intimate and deeply grounded in place.

Kapil Chopra on rediscovering Goa, slowly

Sharing his vision, Kapil Chopra, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, The Postcard Hotel, said the new opening invites guests to rediscover Goa in a completely new way. Located in an iconic part of North Goa, the retreat encourages travellers to connect meaningfully with nature while remaining immersed in the region's history, culture, and unmistakable Goan spirit.

He added that every detail—from uninterrupted views of the Mandovi River and understated architecture to locally inspired cuisine and carefully curated experiences—is deeply rooted in the destination. Enhancing the sense of exclusivity, the hotel features a private jetty, offering guests seamless access to the river and a stay defined by privacy, calm, and unhurried time.

An intimate 18-room riverside sanctuary

Perched along the serene banks of the Mandovi River and surrounded by open skies and greenery, the hotel delivers a truly immersive slow-holiday experience. With just 18 thoughtfully designed rooms, each featuring expansive windows and private balconies, guests enjoy uninterrupted river views—from the soft hues of sunrise to golden sunsets.

The gentle rhythm of the Mandovi sets the tone for the stay, inviting reflection and reconnection. Subtle elegance in design, personalised service, and a strong sense of place come together to reflect The Postcard Hotel's signature approach to experiential luxury.

Wellness inspired by stillness and nature

Wellness at The Postcard on the Mandovi River begins with its riverside setting, where calm is intrinsic. The hotel's discreet spa offers a selection of rejuvenating treatments, including facials and body scrubs, designed to help guests unwind and restore in a tranquil, natural environment.

Dining with a sense of place

Dining at the retreat celebrates the freshest local ingredients and the richness of Goan flavours. Thoughtfully crafted dishes are served at the restaurant with serene garden views, offering a relaxed yet refined culinary experience.

The rooftop bar adds another layer to the journey—an inviting space for handcrafted cocktails paired with sweeping views of the Mandovi River and cooling river breezes.

Curated journeys beyond the hotel

Experiences extend beyond the property through immersive explorations of Old Goa and its surroundings. Guests can enjoy riverside walks and guided excursions that bring the region's heritage to life—exploring historic churches, vibrant local markets, and everyday moments of Goan culture.

Curated experiences include discovering Divar Island or Panjim through art-led saunters, visiting the Salim Ali Bird Sanctuary, and exploring UNESCO-listed monuments—each designed to deepen connection, discovery, and storytelling.

Reinforcing leadership in experiential luxury

With each carefully chosen opening, The Postcard Hotel continues to strengthen its position as a leader in experiential luxury hospitality. Set along the tranquil Mandovi River, this newest retreat reflects the brand's philosophy of mindful travel—inviting guests to experience Goa not in haste, but with presence, purpose, and time well spent.
