

IHCL announces Taj Bandstand, Mumbai

Indian Hotels Company (IHCL) has unveiled the Taj Bandstand project, a new landmark set to redefine Mumbai's skyline. The Bhoomi Pujan took place in the presence of Chief Minister of Maharashtra, Devendra Fadnavis, and N Chandrasekaran, Chairman, Tata Sons.

Puneet Chhatwal, Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer at IHCL, said, "IHCL opened its first hotel - The Taj Mahal Palace, in Bombay in 1903 and has for over a century woven itself into the cultural fabric of the city. Taj Bandstand, a testament to this legacy will be the torchbearer of the iconic brand Taj for the next century. Envisioned to be a defining edifice of Mumbai's skyline, this landmark development is a tribute to Mumbai's spirit, its people, and its growing global prominence."

He added, "We have received key pre-construction approvals including IOD and provisional Fire NOC. Upon receiving all approvals, IHCL expects to commence construction in 2025 and complete the project over the next four years."

Taj Bandstand, spread over two acres, will house 330 rooms and 85 apartments with multiple dining options, convention spaces and world-class facilities. The project will also include development and maintenance of the surrounding area with landscaped gardens, sporting and recreation activities as well as entertainment options paying tribute to the city's diverse and rich cultural heritage.

With the addition of this hotel, IHCL will have 17 hotels in Mumbai including five under development.
