

An Ode to the 90s: Poco Loco Crafts an Exciting Cocktail Menu

Recall the days of school camaraderie, where laughter filled the air, and every moment was a blend of mischief and carefree escapades. Those were the times when strolling with an arm draped around your buddy's shoulder and relishing treats like kacchi kairi with salt and chili, sweetened imli, hajmola, and the beloved bantai soda sparked conversations brimming with amusing anecdotes.

Recreating the excitement and nostalgia of 90s treats, tailored to today's palate, especially with a hint of alcohol, is precisely what Poco Loco Tapas and Bar is introducing. The spirit of January 2024 is poised to transport you on a journey down memory lane with their themed cocktail menu, where each drink is a refreshing sip of the past.

The menu features delights like Mango Thecha Margarita, a Maharashtrian delight; Pan Pasand Daiquiri, inspired by the cherished candy; Picante De la Casa, a spicy tribute to the classic kacchi kairi with salt and chili; Bantai Soda, a true representation of Aamchi Mumbai, embodying the spirit of brotherhood; Hajmola shake, a nod to the old Ayurvedic digestive medicine and a reliable companion, and many other intriguing concoctions paying homage to the 90s.

Complement these delightful cocktails with culinary favorites such as Peri Peri chicken and veggies with cilantro rice, patatas bravas, house tacos, Jain cannelloni, stuffed chicken rolls, and sea bass. Poco Loco's continuous innovation and reinvention of festive and seasonal menus have kept it relevant and beloved over four fantastic years.

Whether you're reminiscing about school days with friends or forging new memories, Poco Loco invites you to relive those golden moments with your 'bantais' and kick off the new year with a celebration that is both wholesome and refreshing. With locations in Khar and South Bombay, Poco Loco is ready to take you on a nostalgic ride to the past.
