

Puneet Chhatwal: “For over five decades, IHCL has maintained its pioneering leadership in Goa”

Indian Hotels Company (IHCL), India’s leading hospitality brand, has announced the opening of Ginger Goa, Candolim, a property that epitomizes the brand’s signature lean luxe philosophy.

Marking the occasion, Puneet Chhatwal, Managing Director & CEO of IHCL, stated, “For over five decades, IHCL has been a pioneer in Goa’s hospitality landscape, beginning with the opening of Taj Fort Aguada Resort & Spa in 1974. Today, IHCL boasts a strong presence in the state with a portfolio of 16 hotels across its brands, 41 amã Stays & Trails bungalows, and two airline catering units in Dabolim and MOPA.”

He further noted, “The reimagined Ginger brand began its journey in Goa in 2018 and has since grown into a portfolio of 100 hotels. The launch of Ginger Goa, Candolim, a 262-key property, is in line with our strategy to expand with large-format hotels in key lodging markets across the country.”

Situated just a short walk from the picturesque Candolim and Moterio beaches, Ginger Goa, Candolim offers a modern and vibrant hospitality experience. The property features the brand’s signature Qmin restaurant and bar, a swimming pool with panoramic views, and a dedicated kids’ play area. With over 4,500 sq. ft. of flexible meeting and banqueting space, the hotel is well-equipped to host both corporate events and social gatherings.

Candolim, a charming coastal village, is celebrated for its pristine beaches, lively nightlife, and rich cultural heritage, making it a sought-after destination for travelers seeking relaxation and adventure.
