

Stone Wood Hotels & Resorts opened its ninth property in Goa

Goa-based hospitality chain Stone Wood Hotels & Resorts launched its latest property, Azalea by Stone Wood, a luxurious retreat set amidst the scenic beauty of Carmona in South Goa. Located just 700 metres from the pristine white sands of Carmona Beach and within walking distance of Zalor Beach, the resort offers a serene escape for travellers seeking relaxation and tranquillity.

The retreat offers 52 well-appointed rooms, including deluxe, premium, and suite options, with modern amenities such as high-speed Wi-Fi, HD LED televisions, and 24-hour room service. The resort also features a multi-cuisine restaurant, Café d’Azalea, a swimming pool, and guest services, including airport transfers and a business centre, making it an ideal choice for leisure and business travellers.

Guests of Azalea can explore nearby attractions, including Cabo de Rama Fort, a historic landmark with breathtaking views of the Arabian Sea, and Big Foot, a recreated Goan village that offers a glimpse into the region’s rich cultural heritage. The property is also close to the iconic Arch of Coconut Trees, a natural landmark perfect for picturesque moments.

Commenting on the launch, Shikhar Kumar, Managing Director of Stone Wood Hotels & Resorts, said, “We are thrilled to introduce Azalea by Stone Wood, which perfectly captures the essence of South Goa’s beauty and tranquillity. With its prime location, luxurious accommodations, and world-class amenities, we believe Azalea will provide an unforgettable experience for every guest. We continue to believe in experiential boutique properties and value-for-money vacation experiences.”

Maintaining the high standards of safety and hygiene that Stone Wood Hotels & Resorts is known for, the property implements stringent cleanliness protocols to ensure a safe and comfortable stay for all visitors. Positioned as an ideal destination for family vacations, romantic getaways, corporate events, and beach weddings, Azalea offers a luxurious and peaceful setting in the heart of South Goa.
