

Indian Hotel Academy hosts empowering convocation for skilled India vision

Indian Hotel Academy (IHA) successfully hosted the “A Skilled India is A Stronger India” Convocation & Conclave, a landmark event celebrating Prime Minister Narendra Modi Ji’s vision for skill development. Held at the USI Auditorium in Vasant Vihar, New Delhi, the event underscored India’s commitment to empowering its workforce and strengthening the hospitality industry.

Recognizing the Future of Hospitality

As part of this initiative, over 300 young hospitality influencers were awarded certifications from the Tourism and Hospitality Skill Council (THSC). These professionals, aligned with the Skill India Mission and Aatmanirbhar Bharat, represent the next generation of leaders driving India’s hospitality sector forward.

Empowering the Workforce: Insights from IHA Founders

G.P. Gautam and Devipshita Gautam, Founders of Indian Hotel Academy, expressed their pride in supporting India’s skill development goals:

"This event marks a pivotal milestone in our journey to contribute to the nation’s workforce. By empowering over 300 young hospitality professionals, we recognize their dedication and reaffirm our commitment to building a skilled industry-ready workforce that will shape the future of hospitality in India. We proudly support the vision of Skill India and Aatmanirbhar Bharat and look forward to seeing these professionals excel in their careers."

Esteemed Dignitaries in Attendance

The event was graced by prominent leaders, including:

- ◆ Rekha Sharma – Member of Rajya Sabha, Former Chairperson of the National Commission for Women
- ◆ Kamaljeet Sehrawat – Member of Lok Sabha from West Delhi

- ◆ Ashok Thakur – Director, NAFED, Government of India
- ◆ Rajesh Sodhi – State Executive Member & Convener of Intellectual Cell
- ◆ Dishant Kapil – State Executive Member & Chief Member, Special Liaison Sub-Committee

Their presence emphasized the crucial role of skill development and youth empowerment in shaping India's workforce and economy.

Bridging Education & Industry

The Association of Hospitality Professionals (AHP) partnered with IHA as the event's official hospitality partner, further strengthening industry-academia collaboration. The conclave provided a valuable platform for young professionals to connect with industry leaders, gain insights, and learn from experienced professionals.

Driving Skill Development & Aatmanirbhar Bharat

The "A Skilled India is A Stronger India" event stands as a testament to IHA's dedication to skill development. By aligning with the Skill India Mission, IHA continues to play a vital role in creating a self-reliant and future-ready workforce for India's growing hospitality industry.

A Milestone for the Hospitality Sector

With its overwhelming success, this convocation and conclave marks a significant step in shaping India's hospitality leaders. As the country progresses towards Aatmanirbhar Bharat, skill development remains a key pillar of economic growth, and IHA remains committed to nurturing talent, fostering innovation, and advancing India's hospitality excellence.
